

2016–2017 Profile

Thomas Jefferson High School for Science and Technology

Evan Glazer, Principal

Brandon Kosatka, Director of Student Services

Consistently ranked America's Best High School by various magazine and organizations, Thomas Jefferson High School for Science and Technology (TJHSST) is the product of a partnership forged between the business community and Fairfax County Public Schools to improve education in science, mathematics, and technology. This unique Fairfax County Public School offers a comprehensive program that focuses on scientific, mathematical, and technological fields. The core skills and values infused throughout the curriculum emphasize and promote critical inquiry and research, problem solving skills, intellectual curiosity, and social responsibility. As the regional magnet Governor's School for Science and Technology in Northern Virginia, the school serves applicants from six different participating school districts: Arlington, Fairfax, Loudoun, and Prince William counties, as well as Falls Church City. Of the 437 students in the Class of 2017, 119 are National Merit Semi-Finalists, and an additional 211 are National Merit Commended students.

Admissions

With approximately 480 students in each class and through a competitive admissions process that selects students based upon their demonstrated aptitude and passion for studies in the scientific, mathematical, and technological fields, the TJ Admissions Office evaluates and considers prospective students' admission test scores, academic achievement, personal essays, and teacher recommendations. Applications are reviewed by independent selection committees composed of school administrators, counselors, and teachers from schools within the participating school districts.

Each year, approximately 480 students are offered admission to the incoming 9th grade class. The enrollment for the 2016-2017 school year is 1792.

The Class of 2020 admissions cycle offered enrollment to approximately 17.9 percent of all applicants

Currently, our grade distribution and enrollment is as follows:

9th Grade	(Class of 2020) - 458 Students
10th Grade	(Class of 2019) - 457 Students
11th Grade	(Class of 2018) - 440 Students
12th Grade	(Class of 2017) - 437 Students

Student Research

Since its very first graduating class in 1985, student research has played an essential role in learning at TJHSST. Requirements for the Thomas Jefferson High School Diploma include the completion of an original engineering or experimental research project in an on-campus laboratory or off-site through a Mentorship program at a government, corporate, or university research laboratory.

Jefferson's 13 science and technology research laboratories include:

- Astronomy and Astrophysics
- Automation and Robotics
- Biotechnology
- Chemical Analysis and Nanochemistry
- Computer Systems
- Engineering Design
- Energy Systems
- Microelectronics
- Mobile & Web Application Development
- Neuroscience
- Oceanography/Geophysical Systems
- Quantum Physics and Optics
- Prototyping and Engineering Materials

Selected outstanding research projects are published in TJHSST's annual student produced research journal, TEKNOS, which has won numerous national awards.

Unique Mission & Beliefs

Mission Statement

The mission of Thomas Jefferson High School for Science and Technology is to provide students a challenging learning environment focused on math, science, and technology, to inspire joy at the prospect of discovery, and to foster a culture of innovation based on ethical behavior and the shared interests of humanity.

Beliefs Statement

At Thomas Jefferson High School for Science and Technology, we believe:

1. Critical thinking and problem solving skills are vital in addressing the complex societal and ethical issues of our time.
2. Students learn best in a community where academic disciplines are integrated, fostering an appreciation of how they interact and form a whole.
3. Global interdependence compels us to understand the languages, systems and diverse cultures of people throughout the world.
4. Literature, music and the arts are essential, timeless aspects of human existence.
5. The methods of science provide discipline to our search for structure in the world.
6. Research stems from a combination of fundamental knowledge, individual creativity and curiosity.
7. Effective communication is often the only difference between a good idea and a successful initiative.
8. Collaborative learning, athletics, and extracurricular activities develop leadership and interpersonal skills.
9. Responsibility and integrity are core principles in the pursuit of excellence.
10. Learning never ends.

Mentorship Program

Students in the mentorship program are involved in research and/or project development at various mentoring agencies, including corporate, university, and government institutions, throughout the metropolitan Washington D.C. area. Students are supervised by mentors who are accomplished scientists, engineers and other technical professionals working at these agencies. The mentorship program provides an alternative way for dedicated students to fulfill their required senior research project. Scientific laboratory mentorships are often comparable to university undergraduate research courses

Mentoring agencies that support the TJHSST mentorship program include: Children's National Medical Center, The National Institutes of Health, Walter Reed Army Institute of Research, The MITRE Corporation, Naval Research Laboratory, Northrop Grumman, George Mason University, Georgetown University Medical Center, Georgetown University, George Washington University, Orbital Sciences Corporation, The Smithsonian Institution, InScope International, CH2M HILL, University of Maryland College Park, National Geospatial Intelligence Agency, Research Innovations, Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency.

Embedded Activities Period

In addition to the seven academic periods, students are required to participate in an activities period that is included in the instructional day. Affectionately referred to as "8th period", this additional class period of the day affords students the ability to seek out academic support and/or enrichment while also providing them the opportunity to participate in any of the over 150 clubs and activities pertaining to (but not limited to) diversity, academic competition, outreach, service, and more.

Accelerated Curriculum

All courses are taught at the gifted, honors, AP, or post-AP level. The rigorous college preparatory curriculum provides students with the opportunity to achieve in all disciplines, with an emphasis on the sciences and the technology of applied sciences. All students are required to work toward a 26 credit "TJ Diploma" that parallels the Virginia state requirements for its Advanced Studies Diploma of 26 credits.
